Parish Bulletin | Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time | 30th June 2019

Last week the schools closed for the summer holidays and with that a little bit of childhood returned to us all as we cast our minds back to the gloriously happy days of youth when two months of unbroken freedom and fun lay ahead and all the work and worry of the year could be forgotten again. There's wisdom in youth because in our young days we had it right – so much of what we worry and work at during the year comes and goes and life moves on whether it does well, terrible or sometimes not at all and sometimes it's good and healthy to just take a break and leave it all to one side for a little while. The older we get (and I even say it as a youngster myself) time seems to move all the quicker and before we know it another year has come and gone and become just another period of time that has passed us. Over the next two months maybe we could take a lesson from the children of our Parish and take a little break from routine too. It's a great thing to rest and relax, to give extra time to family and friends, to waste time laughing and enjoying and just to forget the worries of life for a while. It's healthy to take a break, and this summer I hope you all get the chance to do just that – get away from normal life, do nothing for a little while, spend extra time with your loved ones, travel and treat yourselves or just enjoy a little care-free time with those who matter most.

Since last summer we've all been terribly busy and I would just like to say a little thanks to all who have been busy helping in the life of the Parish – to all who help in the Churches in any of our ministries, to our sacristans and to those who help in the Office and the grounds, to our choirs and musicians, servers, collectors and counters, to those who help the sick and to all who are part of Parish life - thank you for your time and efforts. A special thanks to Fr Murphy, Fr Seery and Deacon Malachy for their warm kindness and generous service to us all. To all of you who join each week, thank you for your support, your friendship and your loyalty to us. As always, you have made it a privilege and pleasure to work among you. May you all enjoy the rewards of happiness, health and laughter over the next few months.

With best wishes for the summer,

Fr O'Neill

Summer is finally here and I'm sure we're all looking forward to a bit of a break sometime in the coming months, and maybe for things to get a little bit quieter. With Summer here it might not always be possible for a Priest to be in the Parish at all times, but in an emergency please don't hesitate to contact any of the Priests in our Pastoral Cluster.
