Patron of our Diocese
1st July

PRAYER TO ST OLIVER PLUNKETT

Glorious Martyr, Oliver, who willingly gave your life for your faith,
help us also to be strong in faith.

May we be loyal like you to the See of Peter.

By your intercession and example may all hatred and bitterness be banished from the hearts of Irish men and women.

May the peace of Christ reign
in our hearts,

as it did in your heart,
even at the moment of your death.

Pray for us and for Ireland.

Amen.

Parish Bulletin ✦ 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time ✦ 26th June 2022

This week the schools will close for the summer holidays and with that a little bit of the excitement of childhood returns to us all as we cast our minds back to the gloriously happy days of youth when two months of unbroken freedom and fun lay ahead and all the work and worry of the year could be forgotten again. Granted for parents there might be a little measure of dread thrown in there, but if nothing else we can at least hope for some sunshine and the odd rest day. Think back to those days and maybe there's wisdom in youth because in our young days we had it right – so much of what we worry and work at during the year comes and goes and life moves on whether it does well, terrible or sometimes not at all and sometimes it's good and healthy to just take a break and leave it all to one side for a little while. The older we get (yes, all of us) time seems to move all the quicker and before we know it another year has come and gone and become just another period of time that has passed us. Over the next two months maybe we could take a lesson from the children of our Parish and take a little break from routine too. It's a great thing to rest and relax, to give extra time to family and friends, to waste time laughing and enjoying and just to forget the worries of life for a while. It's healthy to take a break, and this summer I hope you all get the chance to do just that – get away from normal life, do nothing for a little while, spend extra time with your loved ones, travel and treat yourselves or just enjoy a little carefree time with those who matter most.

Since last summer we've all been terribly busy and I would just like to say a little thanks to all who have been busy helping in the life of the Parish – to all who help in the Churches in any of our ministries, to our sacristans and to those who help in the Office and the grounds, servers, collectors and counters, to those who help the sick and to all who are part of Parish life - thank you for your time and efforts. A special thanks to Deacon Malachy for his warm kindness and generous service to us all and for always being so ready to help in any ask whatsoever. To all of you who join each week, thank you for your support, your friendship and your loyalty to us. As always, you have made it a privilege and pleasure to work among you. May you all enjoy the rewards of happiness, health and laughter over the next few months.

With best wishes for the summer,

Fr O'Neill
