

Prayer for Trust in God

O Lord,
we ask for a boundless confidence and trust in Your divine mercy, and the courage to accept the crosses and sufferings which bring immense goodness to our souls and that of Your Church.
Help us to love You with a pure and contrite heart, and to humble ourselves beneath Your cross, as we climb the mountain of holiness, carrying our cross that leads to heavenly glory.
May we receive You with great faith and love in Holy Communion, and allow You to act in us, as You desire, for Your greater glory.
O Jesus, most adorable heart and eternal fountain of Divine Love, may our prayer find favour before the Divine Majesty of Your Heavenly Father. Amen.

Ballyclog & Donaghenny Parish Bulletin

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time 18th January 2026

Bishop Fulton J. Sheen was one of the most famed preachers of the last century, hosting a weekly slot on TV or radio from 1930 to 1968 with millions of regular followers. He tells a story of when he was a young priest and was appointed to a small parish. One summer afternoon, he was sitting in the confessional. A woman came and knelt and said, "Hey, Priest! Relax. I didn't come to make a confession. I came here because of that old lady-my mother, who insisted that I go for Confession. I'll just kneel here for five minutes and then go away." "What's your name," he asked? "Agatha," she replied. "That's a lovely name", he replied "Agatha means good or kind." The lady laughed and said, "I'm a bad girl; the worst in this town. I just came out of the prison and I'm in the flesh trade. When I was in the prison, I fell for your holy stuff. I prayed to your God to free me, but He didn't answer me. He was too busy for the likes of us, I suppose. Do you want to hear more," asked the lady? "Yes, go on," he said. "Then I prayed to the devil. I promised him that I'd take nine sacrilegious communions and he'd free me. I took communion and cursed God-aplenty. Do you believe-I got freed on the eighth day. What do you say to that, priest?" "The devil got a good bargain," he replied "He gave you freedom and then in return he got your immortal soul. But Agatha! Believe me, you're not completely lost. You still have love in your heart. You're here because of your mother. That means that you still love your mother. Anyone with even a little love in the heart is not lost. Stay with me here and all this can be blotted out like a bad dream." A faint moan came out from her. She started breathing heavily. "That's enough. I'm getting out. You can't do anything about it," She got up and began to walk out. "Stay here and please pray," pleaded the priest. But she went out. As she was going out, he shouted after her, "I'm going to wait for you here, and I'm sure you'll come back." He stayed in the confessional. He asked everyone who came to the church to pray for a special intention. After all the confessions the priest knelt down and started praying too. Many hours passed. One after another the people moved out of the Church. The sacristan put off the lights ready to close for the night. The priest was still praying. He took the key from the sacristan saying that he'd lock the Church. Hours passed – it was almost midnight. Then he heard the same trotting of the sandals. Joy filled his heart. Agatha came and knelt beside him. She began to weep. She poured out her sins and her story to him. She got it all out, was forgiven and was a new person again. Fr Sheen reclaimed that lady in the name of Jesus. Jesus-the Lamb washes away our sins by His blood – that's what todays Gospel tells us. The Gospel is a little word of hope to us all. Nobody is beyond the goodness of God, no past can't be forgiven, no wrong can't be righted. No matter who we are, what we've done, how we've messed everything up – Christ came to make it all ok. In a world so quick to dam and judge, to talk and condemn always remember that God doesn't do that. In a world where you might think you are all alone and that the rest of the world is against you, God is always there on your side and only wants the little good inside us all to grow and take over our lives. That's why He came, what He taught, that's why He suffered and died, that's why we can all rise again.

With best wishes for the week - Fr O'Neill
